If you're struggling with the cost of living and need support to pay for food, fuel and energy costs you can apply for financial support today as part of the Household Support Fund.

This discretionary funding is available for Salford residents now until 31 March 2024 and does not impact on any other benefits you may receive. If you have applied in previous rounds of the Household Support Fund, you may still be eligible for further help, so if you need support or know someone who does apply today
