The Three Little Pigs

Once upon a time, there lived three little pigs.

One day, they decided to leave home and build houses of their own.

The first little pig thought that straw would make a good house.
He built the house very quickly and he was very pleased with it.

The second little pig thought that sticks would make a fine house. He built the house very quickly and he was very pleased with it.

The third little pig thought that bricks would make a strong house.

It took him a long time to build the house but he was very pleased with it.

One day, a big bad wolf came along.

He saw the first little pig in his house of straw.
“Little pig, little pig, let me come in,” he snarled.
“Not by the hair on my chinny, chin, chin!” cried the first little pig.

“Then I’ll huff and I’ll puff and I’ll blow your house down!”
growled the big bad wolf.

So he huffed and he puffed and he blew the house down!
The first little pig escaped and ran to join his brother in the house made of sticks.

The big bad wolf followed the little pig to the house made of sticks.

“Little pig, little pig, let me come in,” he snarled.

“Not by the hair on my chinny, chin, chin!” cried the second little pig.

“Then I’ll huff and I’ll puff and I’ll blow your house down!”
growled the big bad wolf.

So he huffed and he puffed and he blew the house down!
The two little pigs escaped and ran to join their brother in the house made of bricks.

The big bad wolf followed the pigs to the house made of bricks.
“Little pig, little pig, let me come in,” he snarled.
“Not by the hair on my chinny, chin, chin!” cried the third little pig.

“Then I’ll huff and I’ll puff and I’ll blow your house down!”
growled the big bad wolf.

He huffed and he puffed, but the house was too strong. He could not blow it down!

This made the big bad wolf very angry.
He climbed onto the roof of the house so he could crawl down the chimney.

The big bad wolf was in for a big surprise!
The third little pig had been cooking a big pot of stew and SPLASH! The wolf fell right into the pot!

The wolf was very shocked. He jumped out of the pot and ran straight out of the house. He never came back again.

The little pigs lived happily ever after in the house made of bricks.

Answer sheet

Use your playdough to make a straw house for the first pig.

Use your playdough to make some wooden planks for the second pig to saw.

Use your playdough to make some bricks for the third pig to build his house.

Use your playdough to make a pig's face.

Use your playdough to colour in the pigs' dungarees.

The Three Little Pigs Story Map

Cut out the pictures and stick them into the boxes along the path. Can you retell the 'Three Little Pigs' story?

The path starts at a pig's house on the left. It then winds through several scenes: a pig walking, a man carrying a large bundle of hay on his back, an empty box, a man carrying bundles of wood on a shoulder, a pig, another empty box, a man in a grey coat and hat holding a hammer, a grey wolf, another empty box, a pig walking, a third empty box, and finally two pigs walking together. The path ends on the right side.

Home Learning Challenge

After The Three Little Pigs had got rid of the Big Bad Wolf, they enjoyed living together in the brick house. However, after a while they decided it was too small for all of them and they needed to build a new house. Draw a picture of a new house that you have designed for The Three Little Pigs. Label it to show why it is perfect for them.

Can you think how The Three Little Pigs in the story are different to real pigs?

Tell a grown-up the story of The Three Little Pigs. Remember to use different voices for the characters. You could even act it out together!

The third Little Pig bought 10 bricks but he only used 8 of the bricks. How many bricks did he have left? Use your fingers or draw a picture to help you work out the answer.

Build a model of a house that you think would stay standing when the Big Bad Wolf huffed and puffed. You could try blowing it with a hairdryer to test it out.

Write down 5 words that rhyme with pig.
