Daily Prayer

This week we will be joining together with people across the whole world as we think about the special prayer Jesus taught us, which also our Bible reading for this week. We sometimes call it the Lord's Prayer.

There's an activity that goes along with each line of the prayer. You might want to do one or two a day as a family, or set aside one day to do them all in one go! As always, photos of what you've been doing are welcome.

Bible Verses

You can find this in the Bible in the book of Matthew, chapter 6, verses 9-14.

Wondering

I wonder what you think about prayer

I wonder how this prayer makes you feel

I wonder if you have a favourite part of this prayer

Our Father in Heaven

God is our loving parent, our loving Father who is good. We are welcomed as children into his family, part of his family tree. Think about what this means to you. Make a leaf shape out of whatever paper or card you have to hand. You might even be able to find a real leaf that works too. Write your name on it and decorate it. Put it somewhere it will remind you that you are a child of God.

Hallowed be your name

God's name is holy (set apart) and we are to hold it in awe and respect. What words would you use to describe God? Maybe you would like to write them down or draw a picture of what they remind you of. If you have chalk, you could do this outside in a space you have.

Your will be done

If we walk in Jesus' footsteps, we cannot go wrong, following his example in how we treat other people. If you go for a walk together why not take time to talk about what this means for each of you. Or find a space, stand in a row and take a step, each time calling out a way to follow Jesus' example.

On Earth as it is in Heaven

God is always at work in the world. Especially at the moment, for some countries God's work is hard to see. What have you heard in the news recently? Is there a country that you specifically want to pray about? If you can, in a book or online, find a picture of that place and pray for God's peace and love to come.

Give us today our daily bread

Take a piece of bread and eat it, giving thanks to God for all that he provides. Not everyone in our broken world has enough, especially just now. You might also like to pray quietly for someone you know who is struggling in some way, that God would meet their needs too.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us

A young person said 'sins are bad things that are not good'. Take a piece of scrap paper and write or draw something you are sorry for on a piece of paper. If you don't want to write it down, you can just hold the paper and think about it. Say sorry to God and ask Him to forgive you. Screw the paper up and throw it in the bin as a sign that God has forgiven you.

Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil

It's not always easy to do the right thing especially if doing the wrong thing looks really tempting. If we ask him to, God can help us resist temptation. We can let the light of Jesus shine through us through the things we do and say, just as the light shines through the patterns we are going to make in this activity.

Take some paper- something quite thin with not too much pattern works best and you can get some lovely effects if you use old magazines or something similar. Cut or tear it into shapes, maybe a cross or your initial. Take a cotton bud or a small paintbrush and a little bit of oil—you really don't need much—in a small container (vegetable oil will work). 'Paint' the oil in patterns on the shapes and stick the shapes to the window and see how the light shines through.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever

If you have one, take a rubber band; if you don't, make a circle from a piece of wool of thread or even paper, anything you can think of that will fit around your wrist but not too tightly.

Pass the circle through your fingers. A circle like this is endless, there is no beginning and no end.

It is the same with God's love for us. It is endless. It can't be measured.

There is nothing you can do to make God love you more.
There is nothing you can do to make God love you less.

Wear it on your wrist if you can or place it somewhere you can see it every day, to remind you of God's endless love for you.
