

What does Cody hatch from
at the start of the story?

Answer: an egg

twinkl.com

How many legs does Cody have?

Answer: sixteen

twinkl.com

Can you name two creatures in the story?

Answer: Choose any two of the following: caterpillar, ladybird, bee, grasshopper, butterfly.

twinkl.com

Which two words were used to describe the leaf the caterpillar was eating at the end of the story?

Answer: tasty, green

twinkl.com

“Lovely morning to be flying!”
Who does Cody say this to?

Answer: the ladybird

twinkl.com

How long does Cody stay in her chrysalis for?

Answer: for many days

twinkl.com

“Having six legs is great.”
Who says this?

Answer: the grasshopper

twinkl.com

What is the name of the yummy treat Cody and the bee enjoy together?

Answer: nectar

twinkl.com

How do you know Cody liked being a butterfly by the end of the story?

Answer: Cody told the other caterpillar that being a butterfly is great.

twinkl.com

Once Cody has become a butterfly, how many legs does she have?

Answer: six

twinkl.com

What does Cody change herself into before she becomes a butterfly?

Answer: a chrysalis

twinkl.com

What colour are the ladybird's wings?

Answer: red and black

twinkl.com

What kind of minibeast is Cody at the beginning of the story?

Answer: a caterpillar

twinkl.com

Which two words are used to describe how Cody felt about her new wings once she became a butterfly?

Answer: happy and proud

twinkl.com