Dear Parents/Carers,

Predicted Extreme Weather Warning

The Met Office has extended an amber extreme heat warning for Sunday 17 July, Monday 18 July and Tuesday 19 July, as temperatures will build this weekend and early next week for much of England and Wales.

The amber warning highlights likely adverse health effects for the public, not just limited to those most vulnerable to extreme heat.

Temperatures could be in excess of 35°C in the southeast, and more widely around 32°C within the warning area, with Monday and Tuesday most likely to see temperatures around this level.

We will be following government guidance:

- keeping school well ventilated
- keeping pupils hydrated
- avoiding vigorous physical activity

Please can parents/carers provide:

- sunhats
- use suntan cream
- water bottles (plain water only)

Yours sincerely,

Miss Barker
